"ye olden time" hanging from a beam as a sign. Many Yankee rivermen secured lodging and nourishment within the walls of this hostelry and the name "Drag Hotel," was given by them. Drag, in Yankee vernacular being the equivalent of harrow. Judge Witmer's father voluntarily closed the doors of his hotel, because he thought the selling of booze was not conducive to the best citizenship.

On this Witmer farm, which consisted of several hundred acres, is located an Indian burial ground, and the second ravine below the buildings is known to this day as Indian Hollow. An aged lady told the writer that the last Indians of the community had their lodges there, though she herself remembered nothing of them.

We now arrive at the forks of the road just above Port Trevorton. The one going to the right is the State road. We take that, mount a short hill so that we can overlook the buildings of the other road and the river. In the river the remains of piers that supported a railroad and driving bridge for a period of twenty years, from 1854 to the early seventies. (More will be said about this bridge in a separate article) Suffice it to say that a bill has passed the Legislature for an appropriation for a state bridge at this place. A bill was passed by the last previous Assembly, but was vetoed by the governor because of insufficient funds at that time. We hope since the state has no indebtedness,it will meet with a better fate at this time.

Going back to the lower road we find one hotel, the National. There were two others formerly on this street, known as Water street, one was destroyed by fire several years ago, and a brick hotel was torn down about 1872 because of the widening of the canal. This brick hotel was one of the most prominent along the river, located by the canal lock, only a short distance from the river bridge, it harbored and fed thousands of boatmen, raftsmen, travelers by stage and by packet boat. This for a considerable time was the Packet terminal and when the N. C. Road was completed only to Herndon, traffic and travel was transferred by this bridge to packet and thence to Sunbury to the P. & E. road. Among the noteworthy landlords of this house were Thornton, who later went to Akron, Ohio, and became so prominent politically that a street and park of that city are named after him. Another was Daniel Mulliner, who had a pair of educated mules, and whose tricks both of master and animals, were so clever and ludicrous that people traveled for miles to see them. Still another was Ira Sears, whose boast it was that in his bar room a new barrel of whiskey was opened with the rising of the sun each day. This was at the National House.

On this lower street also, were the old store stands of Bogar and Postlewait, Hoffman & Bro, Bogar and Forsyther etc. The old saw and plaining mill whose droning hum blended with the falling of waters of the canal feeder, and made a delightful music. There too, was the old Toll House and telegraph office, the Ferry that came after the bridge was gone, and its quaint rivermen.

Up the hill we go again to the state road, passing the Sons of Veterans' hall, then the post office and stores. We come to the school house. At the above mentioned hall and at the school house we find two large Civil war cannon, mounted and pointed toward Europe. This presents quite a military aspect. But the cannon were presents of the U. S. Government. This section was rather exceptionally patriotic, and was the home of many soldiers. In this village also lived Dr. Wm. W. Lamb, whose dream of Heaven created a wide spread sensation and was published by the Philadelphia papers.

Going along we come to Arnold's confectionery. Opposite this were once rather flourishing clay pits where a superior clay was taken out and transported by boat to Harrisburg, for the manufacture of pottery. A littl farther on to the left was the large canal basin, in the middle of which stood a massive piece of trestle work with coal chutes, about 800 feet in length, supporting three railroad tracks. Here as many as forty boats a day were loaded with coal for the seaboard.

Another eight mile and the old Blosser Hotel, later known as the Snake House is reached. It is now used as a confectionery. A few rods more and we reach the first of four remarkable plantations, each having a ma[illegible]tone mansion and each forme[illegible]ng had stone barns.

Col. W. G. Herrold's Plantation.

The first one embraced several hundred acres of timberland and cleared land. On it were found in its palmiest days besides the mansions, 2 large saw mills and a grist mill, half a dozen dwellings, including the residence of Col. M. T. Heintzelman, 208 Regt; Boatman's home, now owned by Wm. M. Boyer, which contains store and G. A. R. Hall; besides school building, tobacco sheds, trout ponds etc. Col. Herrold was a man of imposing appearance, and was an adept politician. He was the first prothonotary of Snyder County and served several terms as Assembly man. On this plantation,opposite the school house,below the mansion house, i a little old cemetery in which the "forefathers of the hamlet sleep." Also here rests the remains of "Long John, a christianized Indian." Mother Herrold pointed out the grave to the writer, many years ago, but could give no definite information concerning him, other than that. Just below the school house stood an old white washed hut. In it for many years lived a colored man by the name Moses Goodwin. He claimed to be an ex-slave, and when children were bad, mothers curbed the effervescing exuberance by saying "Mosey Goodwin coming."North of the school house there is a road now used as a private farm road, but once a public road, branched off and crossed the hills toward Verdilla and Kantz. We have on good authority that the equipment, cannon and supplies, for Fort Augusta, were dragged up this round about way to avoid ambushments along the river. Up the gully by the school house, David S. Herrold still points out mounds and fire places of Indian times.

Brubaker Farm.

Down the road, one fourth mile, we find the second stone house. This too, had its own sawmill, cemetery and below it we find the ginseng gardens of J. S. Stauffer. Several acres of trellis work, stripped with plasterers lath to allow the light to fall through, as the sheen in a forest, to produce natural conditions without interfering with the cultivation as trees and roots would. A few hundred yards and the handsome cottage of the late General E. C. Williams is before us. The General merits a separate article, which will appear later. However, we will say he was an officer in both the Mexican and Civil Wars and always claimed the honor of being the first volunteer sworn into service for the defense of the Union. He was prominent in State and National politics. Thousand of travelers yearly pass this place without suspecting that it contains priceless relics of these wars, a magnificent library, Indian costumes, pictures and paintings and candlelabra that were on exhibition at the centenial of 1876, besides many quaint and curious things brought from the Adriattic countries and the Levant.

Geo. Herrold Farm

Just below is the third stone house, probably the first in point of age. This was owned and built by Geo. Herrold, the father of the Colonel. This plantation had a saw mill, grist mill, still standing, but not standing still, a distillery, a store house, a hotel building said to have been built in 1777, and still standing now occupied by Levi Reichenbach. Here is also the store of Attinger and Herrold. Just below the Run is the cemetery and United Brethren church.

John Herrold Farm

One fourth mile farther is the fourth stone house, as the next above fronting the canal. This was built before the canal and we believe did once face the road, but the road gave place to the canal. This is now owned by the Rev. S.P.Brown, Reformed minister, who will no doubt write the history in detail. This also had its factories and fisheries and distillery. A curious fact is that these stone buildings had no outside cellar entrances until recently.

We arrive at Independence. With its stage coach hotel and boat yards, now a drowsy hamlet, but once very much alive. This too was principally owned by the Herrolds. Levi Herrold ex-sheriff lived here, later he moved to Akron Ohio, where he was instrumental in locating the county seat of Summit county. We have been told he became Sheriff of that county and also mayor of the city. He lies buried in the Glendale cemetery of that city. In, fact this family once owned most of the land in a five mile square, and much of of four brothers, all Indian fighters—Michael, Peter, Wendel and Adam.

Hello Lucy,
I have your Email to Baltzer Meyer Historical Scoiety here to answer. You asked about a print of Harrold school #8. I should have measured the print while I was at the Center. I'm going to guess about 20 x 24 inches.
Jeff Rouse of New Growth Galleries painted the original, then had prints made for us to sell. He called them an artist proof--and they are $25.00 plus postage. We use mailing tubes for them if you just want the print. To have a print matted and framed is $100.00. Jeff does this for us and it takes him a while!! Mats are either cream color or maroon. Again, plus shipping and handling. I am not sure what the postage is, since I do not work with that, and since rates went up, but we can find our for you.
Send orders to Baltzer Meyer Historical Society, RD 11, Box 211 Baltzer Meyer Pike, Greensburg, PA 15601-9711.
You may be interested to know that high school classes and scouts have helped with work inside the school toward restoration. The outside looks pretty good now. Our headquarters is in the Old Zion Lutheran Church just across the road. We recently were able to get one of the stained glass windows back that was originally in the church. It is the one marked with the name of Elizabeth Harrold. We call our meeting room in the basement Harrold Hall.

WQED Shows Interest in Schoolhouse

On May 3, 2002 at 11:30 AM, WQED the local PBS TV station came to the schoolhouse to do a news article. The WQED crew consisted of Natalie Berry, producer, Chris Moore, reporter, and Paul and Ed the cameramen. Tom Harrold started working with one of their executives over a year ago to have this article presented and aired. During their visit they interviewed: Dr. Doyle, superintendent of Hempfield School District, Paul Ruff, Dave Gordon, and coordinator for Central Westmoreland Career & Technology Center, various students from the center and Tom Harrold. In Dr. Doyle's interview he stated the reasons for the school district's support, the future use of the school house and what he thought this project meant to the community. Paul spoke about his experience of going to this school over 73 years ago. He also spoke on his reasons for his involvement to restore the schoolhouse. Dave Gordon's interview consisted of the school's involvement with the community and what the students had completed to date and what their future work plans are. One of students told of how they thought they felt on doing a project of this nature and how he thought it would affect his future. He had stated that it was great to work on an old building and as time went by, he would always take pride of the fact that he had helped to restore the schoolhouse. Tom's interview was on how he had gotten involved with the project, what it meant to be a descendent of the Harrold family, and what this meant to the Harrold family.

They shot film of the students replacing floor joists, and at the same time, we were able to have two workers from Tuscano Maher repairing the slate roof and repair the bell so that it could be rung for the film crew. Dr. Doyle and Tom Harrold were also shot walking and talking about the project and its progress. While there, we showed them stone monument of the history of the area, they have included this in their coverage. For background information Tom presented a copy of all the photos of the schoolhouse, student list and some of the news articles we have had over the years. We would like to thank all of you that have donated these photos and information, Natalie was very impressed with this information and plans to work it into the article. We are hoping that WQED would be able to do a ½ hour documentary on the history and the restoration project, keep your fingers crossed, Tom will continue to presume this.

In the fall they plan to come back to do an update on our progress, with a last article of Hempfield using it as a one-room school for grades 1 through 8. They were very impressed with our drive to take on a project of this size and our progress to date. The use of students to do some of the work and the community helping also was of great interest to them.

This was the second time that they had come to the schoolhouse (the first time their camera had problems). During the second time, we had everyone in place except the students (a transportation snafu). Dave Gordon came to the rescue; he and another teacher drove four students to the site so we could complete the filming that day. A big thank you to you guys for your dedication to our project.

For all you locally, watch for channel 13's listing toward the end of the month of May. We well try to copy this news cast for all of you that cannot see it. After all this is our history in the making.

Do you know of someone who either attended Harrold's #8 as a student or perhaps took shop class there? We are interested in interviewing them. They were all a part of the history of our schoolhouse. Contact us and we will arrange an interview time!

BMHS News

We have a website all our own now. With lots of hard work from Dale VanMegroet and Julia Gormley, we are up and running. Log on to our site at the following URL: http://www.pa-roots.com/~baltzermeyer/. This page is far more than we have ever had before. It has pictures and information on most of our projects. You can print off membership forms (for those of you who haven't renewed yet, please do so soon) see our photo archives, contribute, and catch up on our news.

Schoolhouse project: we have repaired the slate roof for another year. The students have removed the two ¾" tongue & grove flooring; repaired or replaced damaged floor joists. The original front door is at the Tech. School being restored. It was interesting to see this same door in all the old photos and see that it has survived all these years. They have begun to excavate an area in the crawl space to install a gas furnace and other utility services. If you get a chance to drive by do so, all the hard work of Pat & Jim Baughman and Don & Nancy Baker on the landscape (it is in full bloom and so pretty), the building looks great. We will try to get a photo of this on our new web site.

We need to thank Dave Valerio, and his wife Betty for volunteering him, and John Henry for all their help. Without these two non-members Tom would not be able to keep the progress of the project going on as well as it has and we look forward to their continued help.

Here are the plans for this summer work schedule. 1. To install a temporary floor so we can plaster the wall; 2, plaster the wall while we have good weather; 3. Install the furnace, and duct work; 4. install water and gas line; 5. Find brick to match to close off the side doorway; 6. Paint the inside plastered walls; 7. Prepare for student return in September 2002. Upon their return we hope to complete the following: install the new flooring, install some needed electric outlets, (this is for the future to have presentations to students and visitors), install registers and light fixtures, repair all widows, replicate shutters for the windows, (these will help to restore the building and when closed protect the glass in the windows). Repair the wood ceiling, find and install student desk, install a teacher's desk and pot-belly stoves, (the Hempfield teacher's Association plan to donate this and to help with painting). Paint the exterior trim, install all the windows, restore and install all interior trim, install the slate board, (these are now stored in the centers' storage area). The other major part of this project is to build outside restroom, a need for students so they can have restroom facilities when they use the schoolhouse. This building is to be built as a replica of the schoolhouse on a much smaller size. The location will be on the other side of the parking area behind the school. For the summer, we hope to have the sewerage pipes in place and ready to begin in the fall for construction.

On May 10, 2002 Tom and some of our members will be having their second meeting with the Hempfield steering committee. This meeting is to create the schedule of the fund raising needs and to plan how to reach the residents of Hempfield Township. Tom and his daughter, Lisa Wassel, have been meeting with someone with a great deal of knowledge of the grant writing process and they will be passing on this information to the steering committee and BMHS. It is Tom's hope to have more members help in this part of the program. As he has pointed out the schoolhouse is not the end- it is the beginning of our group to raise funds to remodel the center, giving the needed space and equipment for Marie Forehan and her research and library group; to keep the publishing group, Jim Baughman and Lawrence Plischke, turning out our fine collection of books; and to provide monies to operate these buildings and to provide our group the means to go onto our many future projects. Tom would like to thank you all for you past support, without it he would not be able to do his job and looks very forward to the future of BMHS.

Membership– We are getting our files updated, deleting those members who have not paid their dues for a couple of years. We are also getting everyone in an address book database in the computer, making renewals and new members easier to access. We have 158 paid members. Thank those of you who have paid your dues in a timely manner, we will be sending out membership notices to those who have not paid yet. Several of our new members have been given a membership as a gift. If you would like to do that, just send in a membership form in the name and address of the person receiving the gift and make sure that you note somewhere that it is a gift, we will send out a letter notifying the recipient of the gift and the donor, (if you do not wish to be anonymous). We have had numerous new members over the past year and have been rather lax in getting them in the newsletter. So here they are in no specific order. Welcome one and all to our "family".

Programs– Eileen Rose (and her chauffer, Don) from Chestnut Ridge Historical Society came for a visit for the April meeting. Eileen talked about some of the buildings they had been offered and some of the difficulties they would have had had they taken them. She brought a guest, Granny Earth (yes, that is her real name), a herb grower/ herbal tonic maker from the Chestnut Ridge area. The original settlers had to rely on herbs and those who knew how to use them for all but the most dire health issues. Granny Earth talked about going back to the herbs and using modern medicine at the same time, merging the two doctrines. An afternoon well spent with our friends from up in the mountains.

Good Afternoon,

I wish I could be of more help but I can tell you that George Christopher Herrold, Jr., did indeed serve in the Revolution from PA.

I am a member of DAR and current Registrar for my chapter. I'd be more than happy to help with registration if I could. The first step would be to request copies from National of his record. This will give you documentation leads from the people who have previously joined using his service.

His actual service record should also be gotten. This can be ordered from the National Archives or, if there is a local LDS Family History Center near you, you may look at the micro film and make a copy.

Again, if I can be of further help, please let me know.

Dear Lucy,

As to your request of August 16, 2002 I have found some information relating to Christopher Harrold. In our Bethel Cemetery listing I found an entry for a Christopher Harrold. It lists a death date and age. We also have a binder of Revolutionary War Soldiers that was compiled. Christopher was also listed in there.

I have made copies of the two articles mentioned above. Since you may need sources to reference where this information came from, I listed the title of the binder on the top of the one page and the other lists Bethel Cemetery. There are no formal title pages to these works because they are not published books. They are simply listings that have been done and donated to our society.

The cost for this information is $10.25. This price is broken down as follows: $10.00 for the 1 hour spent researching the name and $0.25 for the one copy. Payment can be sent to the address above when you receive this letter.

Thank you for supporting our library. We are always happy to help researchers however we can. Good luck with your research and if there is anything else we can do please let us know.

Sincerely,
Becky Rankin

Christopher Herrold
From The Harrold Family 1995 –

much more likely that it was located on the hill where the spring is, south of the Harrold school house, in the heart of the Harrold settlement (on the land belonging probably to the church or the Eisaman family). This is the traditional site for the fort. The community called "Harrold's" in that early time included that which is now Youngwood, Brush Creek, Greensburgh and the other territory within a radius of about ten miles, the church school and fort being about the center of the original tract of land called "Good Purpose". A school was established almost as early as a church, indeed before the arrival of an ordained minister, and the schoolmaster performed baptisms. A good account of this settlement, the church and school may be found in W. A. Zundel's book, "The History of Old Zion Church".

In this settlement on the frontier of the province and state, Christopher Harrold was one of the leading men, as indeed would be indicated from the fact that his name was given to it. From the inventory of his estate after his death it is seen that he must have been one of the wealthiest men in the community, not in land perhaps (though his farm was one of the best) but especially in livestock, cattle, sheep, hogs, etc. He held no public office, but apparently was one of the solid substantial leaders of the community. His life in this Westmoreland Co. settlement was, of course, bound up with those of his neighbors, Anthony Altman, Michael Ruch, the Eisemans, Trubys, Cribs, etc. As mentioned in the notes on Anthony Altman, a petition of the early inhabitatns of Westmoreland Co. probably of date 1774, is of record, stating that there was great danger to fear an Indian war, etc.; asking for assistance, etc. It is endorsed: "Fort Allen--Hempfield township, between Wendel Oury's and Christopher Trubee". This was no doubt at the outbreak of Lord Dunmore's War in 1774 when the whole of Westmoreland Co. was laid waste and the inhabitatns were obliged to shelter themselves in forts. (See notes on Anthony Altman, quoting Pa. Archives, 6th ser., Vol 14, P. 296-7, and P. 300-301; also Rupp's History of Western Pennsylvania, P. 259-60; also Albert's History of Westmoreland; also "Old Westmoreland" by Hassler.) Christopher Harrold signed the second of the petitions there mentioned. Archives at Harrisburg, P. P.P., Vol XLV, P. 108. (This has been accepted for service in the Revolutionary War by the D.A.R.) *

Another petition from Westmoreland Co. people, dated Feb. 19, 1779, is very interesting, as giving a picture of the deplorable conditions there at that time. This petition was published in an article by me in Nat. Gen. Soc. Quarterly Dec. 1928 - (We. 16, P. 60-63) - M.K. It is found among the original Revolutionary papers of Pa., Vol. 26, P. 42 (Archives at Harrisburg). Among the signers of this petition was "Stophel Earholt". This was most likely our Christopher Harrold. (A number of the German settlers seemed to be trying to sign their names in English form on this petition.) *

On a Census list of Westmoreland Co. for year 1783 "Chr's Harold Sen'r" appears as having 300 acres of land, 2 horses, 5 cattle and 10 sheep. (At the same time appear Peter, John and Chr'r Harold Jun'r.) (Pa. Archives, 3rd ser, Vol. 22, P. 404) In a tax list for 1786 "Stoph's Harold" appears (same Vol 22, P. 514).

Christopher Harrold died about April 1, 1787--before April 6th at any rate, on which date his heirs entered into an agreement as to the disposal of the estate. The grave stone in the old Harrold's cemetery near Greensburg, Westmoreland Co. gives the date of April 26th, 1787, but possibly this is an error for March 26th. It does not seem to be consistent with the agreement dated April 6th or the administration bond dated April 7th. The inscription on the tombstone is as follows:

Gering

In Memory of Christopher Harold
Born in the year 1721 1723?
& died April 26, 1787. MAR, ?
Aged 66 years 3 months.

The old stone, which had fallen down, was restored to its proper position and the grave marked with a Revolutionary marker through the efforts of Mr. Jeffrey Taylor of Greensburg (whose wife is a descendant of Christopher Harrold).

Later this temporary marker was replaed by a permanent bronze tablet, placed by the D.A.R. chapter of Greensburg. This was unveiled in the spring of 1928 in the presence of Mrs. George Thacher Guernsey and many other descendants. The marker at that time on a standard in front of the tombstone was afterward fastened to the stone itself.

Christopher Harrold died intestate without a will, leaving a wife and five children, as given hereafter. The agreement among his heirs spoken of is as follows: (from Deed book 11, P. 2, Westmoreland Co. records)

(3) Peter Harrold

John Peter Harrold (son of Christopher) was born, probably in Bethel township of Berks Co. in 1754 (from age of death as given on his tombstone in Old Harrolds graveyard in Westmoreland Co.). He appears first on the baptismal records of Old Zion Church in 1777 and often thereafter, as given below.

On a census of Westmoreland Co., Pa., for 1783 Peter Herold appears in Hempfield township as having 300 acres of land, 3 horses, 2 cattle and 2 sheep. (Pa. Archives, 3rd ser., Vol. 22, P. 404). He also appears on a tax list for Hempfield township in 1786 (same, Vol. 22, P. 514). In the census of 1790, Heads of Families, he appears there with 1 male over 16 years, 6 under 16, and 1 female (evidently himself, wife and 6 small children). The census of 1800 shows a Peter Harrold in Hempfield who has only the one male between 16 and 26. (Probably his eldest son Peter).

On Apr. 6, 1787, Peter Harrold, together with his brothers John and Christopher Harrold and brother-in-law John Cribs, conveyed to the other brother Daniel Harrold all their rights in the plantation of the father Christopher Harrold, then recently dead. On Dec. 24, 1801, the heirs of Christopher Sr. made a deed to Charles Clark as given in notes on Christopher. Peter Harrold and his wife Elizabeth are given as among the makers of the deed, but Peter did not sign it at that time. On July 7, 1813, he acknowledged it before John McDowl.

On Jan. 13, 1797, Peter Harrold and Elizabeth his wife conveyed to Patrick Campbell, for $525.00, a tract of 300 acres of land on Sewickley creek in Westmoreland Co. "above Braddocks old road", which had been warranted to Peter Baker of Washington Co. Maryland on Apr. 5, 1769, and had been conveyed by him to Peter Harrold in 1790 (Westmoreland Deed book 2, P. 637 and book d, P. 255 and 420).

Peter Harrold died Mar. 6, 1835, aged 80 years (as given on his tombstone in Old Harrolds graveyard). His will, dated Sept. 25, 1832, was proved Mar. 9, 1835. In this will he leaves to his son John Harrold his homestead of 213 acres, on certain terms which were chiefly that he pay $1600.00 to his brothers and sisters in yearly installments of $100.00, beginning in one year after his death first to Christian Harrold, then one year after that to Peter Harrold, then to Christopher, then to Daniel, next to David, then to Catherine, who was married to William Vandyke, then to Elizabeth married to John Weaver, but who was apparently dead as her children were to have her share, then to Susannah married to John Baum, then next to Christian one more and so on down until the whole $1600.00 should be paid. His wife Catherine was to have the spring house (where son John was then living) and she was to move in there, etc. Son John was to provide her with firewood already cut, at the door of the spring house, also various amounts of grain, meat, coffee, pepper and allspice, hackled flax, wool, milling, potatoes, stableage for the horse, etc. She was to have the garden and small orchard, etc.; and if she were unable to do her own work, son John was to provide her with a girl to do it, etc., etc. Various other sums of money were willed to the children and all household goods to the wife. He appointed his two sons-in-law William Vandyke and

M: John Baum

John Baum as executors. He called himself Peter Harrold of Hempfield township and signed the will in German script. The witnesses were George Meckling and Henry Troxal. It was proved Mar. 9, 1835. The vendue was held on Mar. 19, 1835.

Peter Harrold married Elizabeth Baum (as shown on a baptismal certificate of their son Christopher Harrold). The date was about 1788-79, in the Harrold neighborhood in Hempfield township. She was born in 1756-57 and died July 9, 1826, aged 69 years (as given on her tombstone in the old Harrold graveyard). After her death Peter Harrold seems to have married (2) Catherine __________, as shown by his will as given above. She died probably about 1839. On Sept. 10, 1839, administration of the estate of Catherine Harrold, deceased, of Hempfield township, was granted to William Vandyke, with Wm. Brown and John Senior as sureties (Westmoreland Administration Docket Book A, P. 304). (Elizabeth Baum probably a daughter of Christian Baum).

Items in regard to Peter Harrold and his wife Elizabeth Baum from the baptismal records of Old Zion Church are as follows:

May 25, 1977 Peter Herold and Elizabeth Baum (in single state) are God-parents at the baptism of John Peter (born Jan. 1, 1777), son of Adam Jorg and his wife Elizabeth.

Mar. 19, 1780 The baptism of John Peter (born Jan. 23, 1780), son of Peter Herold and wife Elizabeth. Daniel Bug and Catherina his wife were sponsors.

Oct. 21, 1781 Peter Herold and Elizabeth his wife were sponsors at the baptism of John Peter (born Aug. 18, 1781), son of John Cribs and Catherina his wife.

July 28, 1782 The baptism of Christoph (born Apr. 30, 1782), son of Peter Herold and wife Elizabeth. Christoph Herold and wife Catherina were sponsors.

Mar. 21, 1794 The baptism of Elizabeth (born Mar. 3, 1794), daughter of Peter Harold and wife Elizabeth. Sponsor was Catherine __________ (?)

July 31, 1795 The baptism of Susanna (born May 4, 1796), daughter of Peter Herold and wife Elizabeth. Sponsors were Christian Baum and wife Anna Martha.

Sept. 2, 1804 The baptism of Johannes (born Jan. 9, 1804), son of Peter and wife Elizabeth. Sponsors were Johannes Mülheisen and wife Elizabeth.

Oct. 29, 1809 Peter Herold and wife Elizabeth were sponsors at the baptism of Johannes (born Aug. 26, 1809), son of Christian Herrold and wife Nancy.

Baptism of children between 1782 and 1794 do not seem to appear on the Lutheran record. Possibly they were on the Reformed church record.

The children of Peter Harrold and wife Elizabeth were:

19 i. Christian. Born 1778.
20 ii. Peter. Born Jan. 23, 1780.
21 iii. Christopher. Born Apr. 30, 1782,

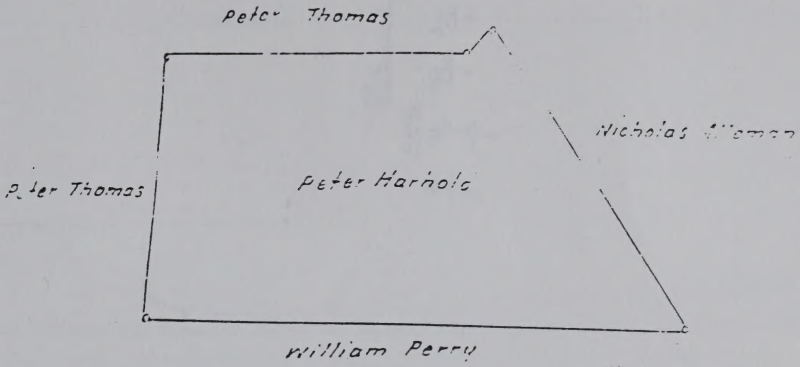
Notes on Peter Harrold's Land

Peter Harrold had probably intended to go to what is now Union Co. with his father Christopher. On Apr. 3, 1769, Peter Harold obtained a warrant of survey for 300 acres in Northumberland Co. (Cumberland Co. then), "a mile above the Forks of the North branch of Buffalo creek". (Patent book A35, P. 73-74). This was in White Deer township. This was surveyed (partly) for him in 1771 (Annuals of Buffalo Valley) and later surveyed on Jan. 9, 1810, for Thomas McGuire, who then had title to it. (Probably Christopher Harrold had taken up this land in the name of his son Peter, who was only about 16 years old at that time.)

Later Peter Harrold went to Westmoreland Co. with his father and brothers. There he acquired a tract of land. This appears in the Survey book 1 of Westmoreland Co., P. 63, where the plot is shown of a piece of property for Peter Harrold "in Pursuance of application #2826, dated Apr. 3, 1769." No date of survey and no amount of acreage is given. The plot is as follows:



Peter Thomas
Nicholas Alleman
Peter Thomas
Peter Harhold
William Perry

This is evidently a tract of 300 acres, originally located on Apr. 5, 1769, by Peter Baker of Washington Co., Maryland (location #2826). On Apr. 29, 1790, Peter Baker conveyed this to Peter Harrold, for 75 pounds (Westmoreland Deed book D, P. 420). Recorded June 11, 1791.

On Jan. 13, 1797, Peter Harrold and wife Elizabeth sold this same property (location #2826), 300 acres, to Patrick Campbell for $525. The land was on Sewickley creek "above Braddock's old road" (same, Book 2, P. 637). Recorded July 5, 1797.

THE DESCENDANTS OF SWISS IMMIGRANT JOHAN ADAM SIMON

Johan Adam Simon, a Palatine immgrant, sailed from Europe on the ship Charming Nancy in 1738. He and his family settled in Washington County, Pennsylvania in 1778. He and his wife, Mary Elizabeth (Deihl), raised a family of nine on their farm, which was located approximately eight miles southeast of the county seat, Washington. Church records of the Bethlehem Church near Glyde, Pennsylvania, provided a partial record of vital statistics for this family. Johan Adam's burial was the earliest identifiable plot in the cemetery near Bethlehem Lutheran Church.

Records of all descendants located are included here; however, particular attention is paid to the descendants of Johan Adam's grandson, Andrew, whose children settled in Indiana counties, Noble, DeKalb and Allen. Andrew's childhood story, written as recalled by one of his grandchildren is also included for its historic interest.

There are several records of marriages between descendants, and cross-referencing between the "cousins" is noted. The first chapter lists all descendants, except those of Andrew's sons, George, Andrew, Peter and Adam, each of which have been assigned a separate chapter. If information is included beyond the birth of the individual, a descendant number will be assigned. Further information may be found by referring to the number in sequence as an adult.

Data has been accumulated over a period of several years; and the record is by no means complete. Perhaps with the publishing of this initial works, additional descendants will be located and a more complete listing may be published at a later date. Every attempt was made toward accuracy; however, good intentions can't always assure accurate transcription. Corrections and additions are welcomed.

Hi Lucy,
Yes, I have alot of info on David Harrold, who was my gg grandfather. My great grandfather, Samuel Harrold, was Daniel's brother. I have the tree back to 1556 in Germany, but I only followed Samuel's line from David. David's family was only the 6th generation in the USA.
David was born in Hempfield Twp, Westmoreland County, PA in 1789. He married Rebecca Bare(Bair), born in Adams County, PA 1793 in Columbiana County,Ohio in 1812. Their 11 children were born in Unity Twp, Columbiana County, Ohio. Both David and Rebecca are buried there in the Unity Brick Church burial grounds.
I'll give you a quick run down of the tree:
Jacob Herrold(Hoeroldt) 1556 and Margaretha ?? Harbach, Ger.
Cornelius 1586 and Maria Bart 1611 Wuerttemberg, Ger.
George 1616 and Anna Magdalina Muller 1609 Wuerttemberg, Ger
Hans Michael 1663 and Margaretha Klein 1687 Steinheim, Ger.
* Geo. Christopher Sr. 1688 and Marie Catherine Scheelkopf ?? Steinheim,
* Geo. Christopher Jr. 1787 and Marie Catherine Pontius ?? Steinheim
* John George 1728 and Marie Benesch ?? Wuerttemberg
John Peter 1754 and Elizabeth Baum?? Bethel Twp, Berks County, PA
These were David's parents and both died in Hempfield Twp, Westmoreland County, PA. Are buried in the Harrold Cemetery outside of Greensburg, PA.
* were the first Harrold (Herrold) immigrants to the Colony. The cities listed behind the names are the birthplaces of the Harrolds. You are going to find more than nine ways to spell Harrold.
Keep in touch. Leo Harrold

the school board. As a lawyer Mr. Harrah has been successful. He was married, in 1875, to Mary A., daughter of William B. and Elizabeth J. (Kennedy) McGaflick, and is of Irish descent. Mr. and Mrs. Harrah have one child: Matthew S. They are members of the Presbyterian church.

SIMON HARROLD. The great-great-grandfather of the subject of this biographical sketch was a soldier of the Revolution. His son Peter, who resided in Eastern Pennsylvania, was the father of David Harrold, one of the pioneer settlers in Ohio. To his wife, formerly Miss Bear, were born twelve children. Samuel, of this number, whose birth occurred Aug. 16, 1816, in Columbiana county, Ohio, still resides in his native county. He married Susanna Crumbaker, also descended from Revolutionary stock. Their children were twelve in number, all of whom with one exception survive. Their son, Simon Harrold, was born Nov. 3, 1840, in Columbiana county, Ohio, where he remained until his majority was attained. Becoming a pupil of the common and select schools he later spent four years in acquiring a knowledge of the carpenter's and builder's trade, and in 1866 chose Beaver Falls as a favorable point of settlement. Here an extended field awaited him. He erected the second new dwelling in the place, which his family occupied. He then built a planing mill, and embarked in the business of a lumber merchant and contractor. These departments of industry he still conducts, and has during his residence in the town erected most of the factories and important buildings besides its churches, school-houses and hotels. He has also constructed two court houses in Ohio, and done much important work in other parts of Pennsylvania. He is a director of the First National Bank of Beaver Falls, and is connected with various manufacturing enterprises. Mr. Harrold was in January, 1866, married to Louisa, daughter of Jacob Schauweker, of Columbiana county, Ohio. Their children were: Edward R. (deceased), Julia C., Alberta S., Irvin C., Mary E., Isadore L., Katherine Maud, Alfred E. A staunch Republican, Mr. Harrold has never been an active worker in the field of politics. He is a member of the Methodist Protestant church of Beaver Falls, and connected with Echo Lodge, F. & A. M., that borough.

ROBERT HARSHA, dealer in musical instruments and sewing machines, Beaver, is a native of this county, born in Hanover township June 17, 1824. His parents, John and Mary (Moore) Harsha, were natives of this state and of Irish and German descent. His father started in life as a school-teacher and a surveyor. He was a college graduate, and a man of high literary attainments. He served for a time as justice of the peace, and was a member of the legislature for Beaver county in 1836–37–38. He had eleven children, of whom Robert, who is the ninth, is the only survivor. He was reared in Hanover township, attended the common schools, and followed farming until 1869, when he came to Beaver and engaged in traveling and selling farming implements for a time. He then embarked in his present business, which he has since followed with success. In this business his son, J. W., is a partner. He was married, in 1857, to Miss E. A., daughter of John and Nancy (Charles) McCauley, natives of Beaver county and of Irish descent, former of whom, a farmer, was born in 1805. Mr. and Mrs. Harsha have had ten children, nine now living. They are members of the United Presbyterian Church, of which Mr. Harsha has been an elder for twenty years. He also acted as Sabbath school superintendent for about fifteen years. He held most of the local offices in Hanover township. In politics he is a Republican.

HENRY WATERS HARTMAN. Mr. Hartman, one of the most prominent representatives of the manufacturing interests of the county, is descended from German stock. His grandfather, Peter Hartman, emigrated from Germany and joined the Revolutionary army under Gen. Anthony Wayne. Settling after his discharge in Chester county, Pa., he subsequently removed to Perry county in the same state and engaged in farming. His three children were Benjamin, Frederick, and a daughter who became Mrs. Shoemaker, the mother of Prof. Shoemaker, Ph. D., of Blairstown, N. J. Benjamin Hartman was born in Perry county, afterward resided for twenty years in Huntingdon county, and ultimately removed to Blair county, in the same state, where he remained until his death; he married Penina M. Wilson, of Huntingdon county, and had children

FULK—EBERLY.

Christmas Eve at Columbia City occurred the marriage of Mr. Frank Fulk, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Noah Fulk of north of Churubusco to Miss Bertha, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Eberly of the same locality, Rev. L. A. Lukenbill officiating. Both the young people are well known and are popular in this vicinity, and The Truth joins their many friends here in wishing them happiness.

GAFF—OLIVER.

Miss Lena Viola Oliver and Mr. Levi Arby Gaff were united in marriage at the residence of and by Rev. G. E. Luke, in this city, Saturday afternoon.

The contracting parties are well known and respected young people. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Oliver of Green township, and the groom is the son of Mrs. Oliver Green, of the same township.

Mr. and Mrs. Gaff will reside on the farm of J. G. Steel, of York township, with whom the groom has accepted employment.—Albion Democrat.

MILLER—FISHER.

Today at Chillicothe, Ohio, at the home of the bride's parents occurs the marriage of Miss Emily Fisher of that city to Mr. Chas. Miller who resides south-west of this city in Whitley county. Immediately after the wedding they will come to this city to take up their residence at the groom's beautiful farm. The bride comes to us as a stranger but is a highly recommended lady with a loveable disposition, whose presence brings sunshine wherever she goes.

Mr. Miller needs no introduction to Truth readers as he is a genial gentleman at all times, reserved, frugal, honest, temperate—the essentials for success—born of good parents and withal endowed with courage and energy to keep and provide for a happy home. Congratulations are advanced by The Truth, and seconded by a host of friends.

Peter Brubaker was born in Churubusco June 11, 1882 and died May 19, 1906; aged 23 years, 11 months and 8 days. On July 12, 1904 he was united in marriage to Miss Clara Beyer. "Pete" as he was known by everybody was a quiet, inoffensive young man and by his honesty and integrity of purpose won the esteem of his fellow men. And now that his sufferings are over, we fondly trust that He who knows the heart life of every man, has sent his angel band to bear him away on their snowy wings to the Eternal home on high. The high esteem in which the disceased was held by the entire community could not be better illustrated by the hundreds who gathered at the residence Sunday and followed the body to the Eel River Baptist church where services were held for the dead by Rev. Parker of the U. B. Church. Kind and tender words of sympathy were spoken for the loved ones left behind and a tribute of praise for the departed. He leaves behind a wife, a father, three brothers and a host of friends to mourn their loss. The casket was fairly loaded with flowers, tokens of the purity of life of the disceased and the love bourne him by the family and friends.

Mrs. Brubaker and her father, Chas. Beyers desire THE TRUTH to thank the many friends and neighbors who by their presence and assistance have done so much to lighten the heavy burden which they have been called upon to bear.

Childcare center boards get a jump-start

Volunteer board members from four county childcare centers gave their free time to attend classes last weekend—and now those centers, and the children they serve, will benefit for years to come.

Board members from Kendallville Day Care, Life and Family Services, Wayne Center Methodist Church Daycare and Preschool and West Noble Daycare Center attended Jump-Start, a conference offered by Freedom Academy, in Kendallville on Friday night and Saturday. The conference was designed to help childcare center boards build their knowledge of nonprofit management—especially finance, marketing, fundraising and personnel—and to make their organizations more effective and sustainable.

Because of these boards' participation in Jump-Start, their centers could soon qualify to receive free, ongoing, support from an experienced nonprofit advisor.

Jump-Start was offered as a part of the TriUMPH program—the Dekko Foundation's long-term project designed to improve the quality and availability of childcare and early childhood education in communities that it serves. "Childcare centers have worked so hard to build the quality of their service to families and children," said Kim Davidson, Dekko Foundation program officer. "Boards want to protect that investment. By learning to make good business and financial decisions, they ensure that their centers will be there to care for children for generations to come."

SHOOTING CASE IS CLEARED UP

Charge to Be Filed Against Bluffton Man Who Confessed

(Special to The Journal-Gazette)

BLUFFTON, Dec. 16.—The mysterious shooting of George Redd, 57, manager of the Bluffton district of the Indiana Service corporation, in the rear of his home here on the night of October 12 was solved today, police reported, with the purported confession of Forrest Blair, 50, of 317 East Washington street, this city, an employe of the city waterworks department.

Police reported that the confession was obtained after Blair arrived in Indianapolis this forenoon, in the custody of Detectives Ed Rose of this city and Al Teusch of Huntington, members of the Indiana state police department who had taken him there for further questioning, following earlier examination of Blair and other suspects in this city.

Blair was returned to this city late today and was lodged in the county jail, awaiting further action, including the facing of formal charges in the Wells circuit court. Police did not release the confession for publication or make it known in full, pending a complete check of some angles that it is said to have included.

Victim Has Recovered

Prosecuting Attorney George Glass stated that in all probability he would file an affidavit in three counts, charging Blair with assault and battery, assault and battery with intent to kill and assault and battery with a deadly weapon. Conviction of either of the latter two charges would carry a penitentiary sentence.

Redd has fully recovered from the bullet wound inflicted by a .25 calibre bullet which entered his back, on the right side, passed entirely through the muscle tissues and emerged in front without touching the lung or other vital organ. The injured man recovered rapidly and has been back at his duties several weeks.

The Indiana Service corporation posted an offer of a reward of $200 for the arrest and conviction of the

Pistons To End Home Campaign Sunday Night At Coleseum

The Zollner Pistons, already assured of a playoff berth, will wind up their home schedule in the National Basketball Association by meeting the Eastern Division leaders, the classy New York Knickerbockers, at the Coliseum Sunday night. The Pistons have a 3-2 edge on the Knicks this season.

The flying Z's will meet Rochester's Royals in the first round of the N. B. A. Playoffs, with the opening game of the best-two-out-of-three series booked at Rochester Friday night. March 20. The second game of the set will be played at the Coliseum Sunday night. March 22.

The Z's have only three more games in the regular season, because of the cancellation of a road date with Philadelphia. Wednesday's game at Boston and a windup date at Milwaukee Tuesday, March 17, are other games on the Piston docket.

Larry Foust's 1,000-point target is getting smaller and smaller. The Z's 6-9 pivot ace will have to score at better than 28 points per game to reach the 10-century mark for the second straight season.

He leads the Pistons with 914 points and the cancellation of the Philadelphia game hurt. He has only three games in which to get the 86 points needed to hit the 1,000-points mark.

Mrs. Andrew Miller Dies March Sixth

She was united in marriage to Andrew Miller December 7, 1893. To this union three children were born, two daughters and one son.

She leaves to mourn her loss, her husband, Andrew; two daughters, Mrs. Tusy Borne, of Huntertown and Mrs. Eva Keller of Fort Wayne; a son, William Miller of Fort Wayne; six grandchildren; thirteen great-grandchildren; one great-great-grandson; one sister; two brothers; and a host of relatives and friends.

Funeral services were held in the Sonday Funeral Home at Churubusco and burial was in the Cedar Chapel Cemetery.

Mrs. Lyons Entertains The Kings Workers

The King's Workers Class of the Avilla Methodist Church met March 10th with Mrs. Verl Lyons. Mrs. Daisy Simon was in charge of the meeting. In the absence of Mrs. Shanlin, Mrs. Thrapp gave the devotions, reading from the [illegible] Chapter of St. Matthews. Games and contests were enjoyed and an interesting letter from Mrs. Lowenstine of Danville, Illinois, was read. At the close of the evening, the hos-

Women Of LaOtto Lutheran Church To Interpret Great Hymns

A Lenten Devotional Service, followed by a Fellowship Tea, will be presented by the Women of the Emmanuel and Bethlehem Lutheran Churches at the LaOtto Lutheran Church on Thursday, March 19th, at 1:00 o'clock. This Annual Lenten Devotional Service of the LaOtto Lutheran Church will, this year, interpret, in Song and Story, six great Lenten Hymns of the Christian Faith.

The service will begin with an interpretation of the Life and Music of Bach by the organist of Emmanuel Church. Miss Carma Jean Vendrely, who will then play a Bach number as the prelude. Mrs. Enos Young, President of Emmanuel's Ladies Group, will conduct the opening service, using The Lenten Versicles. Mrs. Fred Koenig will read The Old Testament Lesson; Mrs. Herbert Martin will read The New Testament Lesson; and Miss Edith Hosler will lead the congregation in a Lenten Prayer.

Each of the Hymn-Studies will tell some historical incident in the life of the hymn writer and something of the words and music of the hymn. A period of devotional meditation will precede the choir's musical interpretation of each hymn. This period will be introduced by Mrs. Darrell Troyer, as program leader.

CEDAR CREEK(CHAPEL) CEMETERY
BURIAL PLOT LOCATOR
CEMETERY LOCATED AT INTERSECTION OF COUNTY ROAD #11A AND #68

THE FOLLOWING IS A COMPILATION OF THE BURIAL LOCATIONS OF THOSE INDIVIDUALS BURIED IN THE CEDAR CREEK(CHAPEL) CEMETERY. THE COMPILATION WAS DRAWN FROM THE ORIGINAL HANDWRITTEN BURIAL RECORDS MAINTAINED BY THE VARIOUS CARETAKERS OF THE CEMETERY WHICH CREATES THE POSSIBILITY OF TRANSCRIPTION ERRORS ON MY PART. HOWEVER, I HOPE YOU FIND IT USEFUL IN YOUR RESEARCH. THE LISTING IS ALPHABETICAL BY LAST NAME AND THE DATE IS THE BURIAL DATE AND NOT THE DATE OF DEATH ALTHOUGH THEY SHOULD COINCIDE PRETTY CLOSELY. THERE ARE GENERALLY 5 CEMETERY BURIAL SITES FOR EACH PLOT. THERE ARE CURRENTLY 4 PLATS TO THE CEMETERY WITH PLAT 1 STARTING ALONG THE SOUTHERN BORDER OF COUNTY ROAD #68 AND THEN GENERALLY MOVING NORTH ALONG #11A TO THE NORTHERN BORDER. IT WOULD BE HELPFUL TO HAVE A COPY OF THE CEMETERY MAPS INCLUDED EXCEPT THEY WERE TOO BULKY TO REPRODUCE, SO GOOD HUNTING. IT IS A PLEASANT PLACE TO GO FOR A WALK. THE KEY TO THE LOCATOR CODE NUMBER IS AS FOLLOWS:

DIGIT 1 IS PLAT NUMBER. THERE ARE 4 PLATS TO THE CEMETERY.
NEXT 3 DIGITS IS PLOT NUMBER. THERE ARE GENERALLY 5 BURIAL SITES TO EACH FAMILY PLOT.
NEXT DIGIT IS SITE OF GRAVE WITHIN THE FAMILY PLOT.
LAST DIGIT IS ROW NUMBER.

IF ALL OF THIS SEEMS TOO COMPLICATED TO FOLLOW AND IF THE CEMETERY CARETAKER IS AVAILABLE I WOULD RECOMMEND CALLING HIM AND SETTING UP AN APPOINTMENT. THE CURRENT CARETAKER IS JAMES BAUMAN AT 219-357-3017.

Harrold Daniel, who for nearly forty-five years has been a respected resident of Swan Twp, died Thursday at Logansport, where he has been for nearly a year under treatment for mental derangement. This condition is believed to have resulted from grief over the loss of his wife. He was born in Columbiana County, Ohio, Nov. 8, 1814 and at death was 83 years, 6 months and 5 days of age. He was married to Margaret Monaweck, and twelve children were fruits of this union. Ten of them survive. Mrs. Harrold died about six years ago. He located in Noble County in 1852, bought a farm and paid for it by the severest toil. He bore faithfully the burdens incident to pioneer life in Noble County. His remains were brought home for interment and the funeral occurred on Sunday at Bethlehem Church, conducted by Rev. Gump of Ari. ~ 5-19-1898

BETHLEHEM CEMETERY

Readings were taken in August 1982 and updated in June 1986. Located in Section 15 of Swan Township on the south side of Swan Road 1.4 miles west of State Road 3, this cemetery was part of land owned by Peter Bricker. The church which stood to the east of the cemetery was demolished several years ago. It was named for the church in Washington County, Pennsylvania, which the Bricker, Simon, and Whonsetler families attended prior to migrating to Noble County. The earliest birthdate and deathdate engraved on stones here belong to James Warner (1787-1853). Point of beginning is at the southwest corner of the cemetery, and rows were read from north to south.

UNITY.

THIS township forms the northeastern corner of the county, and is known in the government survey as township 8, in range 1. Its original proportions are yet preserved, Unity being six miles square, and bounded on the north by Springfield, in Mahoning County, on the east by Pennsylvania, on the south by the township of Middleton, and on the west by Fairfield township. The surface of the northern part of Unity is level, but is more broken in the parts near the southern boundary and along the streams in that part of the township where are high hills, marking the limits of small valleys. Nearly the entire surface is sufficiently undulated to afford natural drainage, the area of swampy lands being comparatively small. The greater part of the township has been denuded of the virgin forests which covered it, but enough timber of the common varieties remains for domestic use. The surface is underlaid with coal, which, in the southern part especially, is of an excellent quality. Potter's clay may be procured in the eastern part, and indications of iron-ore abound. The principal streams are Little Beaver Creek, in the northeast; Lesslie's Run, south of the centre; and Bull Creek, in the southwest, all having a general southeasterly course. Formerly these streams had greater volume than at present, there being now insufficient water to afford much power.

The soil of the township varies in fertility, being a clayey, sandy, or gravelly loam. It is easily cultivated, and well adapted to the mixed husbandry which prevails.

PIONEER SETTLERS.

The traditions of the early settlements are vaguely remembered; and, no recorded history of that important period having been preserved to prompt the memory of the few remaining pioneers, the accounts they give are often so obscure as to render them unsatisfactory. It appears that the first to occupy the soil of Unity were a class of people called squatters, who came there in the belief that it was Pennsylvania territory, and that they could hold their lands by right of settlement. Having no means to purchase their lands, they gave way for another class of men, who had enough means to secure the land. It is said that a man named Beard was the first settler in the township, he having located on section 19 some time before 1800, or in that year. What became of him, or when he left, cannot be learned. Others came a little later, to remain identified with the township. Some of these are here briefly noticed:

Richard Dildine came from Essex Co., N. J., in 1801, and entered the whole of section 20. He had at that time but one child,—John, who is yet living on this section, and is the oldest settler in the township. Seven daughters and two sons were born in Unity. One of the latter, Richard, now occupies the original homestead. Mr. Dildine experienced many hardships, and could not procure some articles of provisions nearer than Pittsburgh. He died on his place in 1824.

Adam Rupert, a Revolutionary soldier, located on section 17 in 1802, where he reared four sons,—John, Jacob, Adam, and Benjamin, whose descendants yet live in that locality or in Fairfield.

A few years later, Conrad and Matthias Yarrian came from Westmoreland Co., Pa., and settled on sections 7 and 8. They had large families, and some of the members yet live in that part of the township.

On section 6, John Snook located some time about 1802. Christopher and David Harrold settled on section 8 in 1804. The former reared sons named John, Michael, Benjamin, and George; and the sons of David were Daniel, Samuel, Jacob, John, David, and Isaac, some of whom live in the northeastern part of the county.

On section 17, Michael Baker settled as early as 1802, living there until his death. On the same section Peter Heck was an early settler.

A man named Pinnock lived on section 19 at an early day, and had a neighbor in Emanuel Dixon; the latter built a saw-mill on Bull Creek about 1803, which he sold to Frederick Roos soon after.

John Heinman, from Westmoreland Co., Pa., came about 1802, and made a settlement on section 29. In after-years he had a small shop for making grain hand-sickles. Heinman sold part of his land to Robert Simison, who settled here about the same time. A son of the latter yet lives on section 29. Simison was one of the first associate judges of the county.

On section 27, David McCalla was the pioneer. His son Alexander yet lives on section 28. This was purchased, in 1803, by a man named Mason, who parceled it out among his sons-in-law Fronks, Maple, and Rich. David Routson was also an early settler on this section.

Richard Beeson entered section 32 in 1801, and soon after came on to live, remaining until his death. In his day he was one of the most prominent men of the county, holding important trusts. He put up one of the first grist-mills, and made other desirable improvements. He reared sons named Henry, Samuel, Richard, John, and Mahlon, some of whom yet live in that neighborhood.

Northwest from Beeson, John Sands settled about 1803, and was soon after joined by Aaron and Isaac Chamberlain, the latter living on the farm now occupied by Wm. C. Baker, who came to this locality in 1816. In this neighborhood lived, before 1805, James Armstrong, John Bennett, Stephen Ogden, and Benjamin Reeves, and a little farther north, in 1808, Joseph Taylor, of Washington Co., Pa., became a settler. He had sons named Joseph, who yet lives near New Waterford, and Jacob, living in Middleton township. The latter is the father of Professor A. Y. Taylor, a well-known educator of the county.

Section 1 was entered by Wm. Harrah about 1802, who divided the land among his sons, and section 2 was taken soon after by Jacob Greenamyer and his sons Jacob, Solomon, and Daniel. They all had large families, the sons of Jacob being William, John, Jacob, Solomon, Benjamin, Josiah, and Peter. The sons of Daniel were Samuel, Jacob, Joseph, and Eli.

Solomon Greenamyer was a justice of the peace more than twenty years, and was widely known. He had fourteen children, twelve attaining mature years. Six of these were sons, named William, Jacob, David, Elihu, Jehu, and Enos.

On section 3, Moses Blackburn settled in 1802, dividing the land among his sons—John, James, Benjamin, and Moses—and his son-in-law, James Earley, who was an excellent blacksmith, making grain-sickles, etc. The latter and Benjamin Blackburn served in the State Legislature. The Blackburns had a carding-mill on the stream running through their land, and at a little later day also fulled cloth.

Henry Forney, of Adams Co., Pa., purchased section 10 in 1802. He had six sons, John, Peter, Andrew, Henry, Adam, and Nicholas, among whom his land was divided. All lived in the township until their death. The middle part of this section is now the property of Benjamin Forney, a son of Adam, and includes the place where Henry Forney built his log cabin, the family, meanwhile, living under a large grape-vine.

Peter Eyster was an early settler on section 11, and afterwards most of his family settled there. At a somewhat later day Isaac Earley became a resident of section 15, on the place now occupied by B. F. Earley. Other sons, H. V. M. and R. S., live near New Waterford. At the latter place lived Joseph Taylor, a well-known pioneer, and some of his sons yet reside there. In the same neighborhood, David McClaskey, James Nevin, and the Mercer family were among the old and prominent settlers. The latter homestead is now occupied by Cyrus Mercer.

Charles Long came to Unity in 1802, from Rockbridge Co., Va., and entered section 13. His family at that time consisted of a son, Charles, who yet lives on this section, at the age of eighty years, and a daughter. On the journey hither another son was born, while the family was crossing the Allegheny. From this circumstance he was usually called "Mount." A fourth child was born in 1810. Charles Long attained the rare age of ninety years, dying in the township.

Section 23 was entered by Frederick Sheets, of Cumberland Co., Pa. He moved west in 1802, stopping about a month where Allegheny City now is, but did not like the country. Continuing his westward journey, he selected Unity as his future home, and built his house near where is now the residence of Jacob Strawhacker. He had sons named Jacob, John, Frederick, Christian, Samuel, and Abraham. The latter became a well-known physician. One of the daughters, Margaret, married William Stacy, who came to the township in 1818; another became the wife of George Augustine, belonging to a family of very early settlers on an adjoining section. All of the Sheets family are dead, but a large number of grandchildren yet live in that locality.

In 1801, John Taggart, of Mercersburg, Pa., entered section 25, and soon after brought on his family,—a wife and daughter. The latter became the wife of Hon. Robert Forbes. In 1804, James C. Taggart was born, and later other sons named Robert and John, all of whom lived on section 25 until their death. Other daughters became the wives of Dr. Robert Chamberlain and J. T. Brewster. John Taggart was a major in the war of 1812, and was subsequently a member of the Legislature.

After 1805 the township received a heavy immigration, many soon removing to points still farther west, and others abiding permanently. Among the more prominent may be named the Hatchers, Kees, Cress, Justison, Mendenhall, Boatman, Crum, and Martin families.

In no way can the condition of the township's settlement be better indicated than by a list of freeholders prepared in 1826, by William Irwin, Richard Beeson, and William Hatcher, for school purposes.

District No. 1, composed of sections 1, 2, 3, 10, 11, and 12, had William Harrah, James Harrah, Jacob Greenamyer, Daniel Greenamyer, Solomon Greenamyer, George Hale, John Stallsmith, Moses Blackburn, Benjamin Blackburn, John Blackburn, James Blackburn, Samuel Ritchie, John Musser, William Lewis, John Lewis, Peter Eyster, Elias Eyster, Abraham Christ, Thomas Davis, Daniel Faulkner, Daniel Rauch, Michael Kentner, Frederick Oberland, John Smith, James Carson, James Earley, William McCready, John Forney, Jacob Forney, Nicholas Forney, Peter Forney, Andrew Forney, Christian Forney, Adam Forney, Frederick Roderick, John Hahn, John Livingston.

About the Author

A second generation Oklahoman, Don was born July 13, 1940, at Wellston Township, Lincoln County, Oklahoma. His childhood was spent in Ponca City, Claremore and Oklahoma City, before parents, Reu G. and LaFern (Moore) Herrold, finally settled on Tulsa as their permanent home in 1954. He graduated from Tulsa Central High School in 1958. Four years later he earned a bachelor of arts degree (history and government) at the University of Oklahoma at Norman.

Don graduated from College of Law at Tulsa University in February 1966, with a juris doctorate degree. In April of that year he was admitted to the Oklahoma Bar. Since then has been admitted to practice before the Western, Northern and Eastern U.S. District Courts of Oklahoma, the Tenth Circuit Court of Appeals in Denver, the Eleventh Circuit Court of Appeals in Atlanta, the U.S. Tax Court and the U.S. Supreme Court.

In May 1966, Don was accepted to the U.S. Navy's officer candidate school at Newport, RI, and was commissioned an ensign the following September. He served as combat information watch officer, X-division officer, operations-intelligence and legal officer aboard USS CANBERRA (CAG-2), a heavy guided missile cruiser, during two combat deployments to Vietnam. In August 1968, he was reassigned as legal officer of Navy Training Squadron 28 (VT-28), NAS, Corpus Christi, Texas and remained there until released from active duty in February 1970. Ten years later he was honorably discharged from the Navy as a Lieutenant Commander in the U.S. Naval Reserve Judge Advocate General Corps.

In March 1970, Don became an Assistant Attorney General of Oklahoma. The following year he entered private practice in Oklahoma City in June 1972, returned to practice law in Tulsa. In April 1983, along with his brother Jack, who is also a lawyer, they formed the law firm of Herrold, Herrold & Davis, Inc., where they presently practice law, with emphasis on civil litigation. In addition to interest in family, civil war history and bible study, he has done some cattle ranching, is an avid OU football and basketball fan, and during the past ten years has taught a senior citizen and adult Sunday school class at his local church, Asbury United Methodist.

On August 26, 1961, Don and Mary Louise Essman, high school and college sweethearts, were married in Tulsa. Mary, who also graduated from OU with a BS '62 in medical technology, has worked in microbiology at Tulsa's St. John Medical Center and in epidemiology at Oklahoma City's Deaconess Hospital, is now a full-time mother and homemaker. Their three sons, David, 22, who graduates from the University of Texas in May 1992; Daniel, 18, who will begin at the same university in the fall of 1992, and Matthew, 15, a freshman at Tulsa Memorial High School, have been or are now active competitive high school and U.S.S. swimmers. Fritz von Hoeroldthaus, a miniature schnauzer and Rocky Balboa, a hefty Yorkshire terrier, round out the current household.

CHAPTER V

GEORGE CHRISTOPHER HERROLD II, ELDEST IMMIGRANT SON

George Christopher "Stophel" Heroldt (1723-1787), the eldest son of Georg Christoph and Anna Catharina (Scheelkoft) Heroldt, was born and christened November 22, 1723, at Steinheim an der Murr, in the Schwabian sector of Württemberg. He was 19 when Rosannah disembarked her passengers at Philadelphia that September 1743. He later married Catherine (surname unknown, possibly Fulhaven), and soon moved his household to nearby Bethel Township, Berks County, PA, where he maintained his residence until sometime between 1760 and 1770.[32]

Stophel and Catherine had five children, all who spelled their last name H-a-r-r-o-l-d, whose names were:

- Johann (John) Harrold (1745-1828) was born about 1745 at Heidelberg Township, Lancaster County, PA;

- Johann Peter Harrold (1754-1835) was born about 1754 at Bethel Township, Berks County, PA;

- Christoph Harrold (1758-1826) was born about 1758 at the same place as brother Peter;

- Catherine Harrold (1759-?) was born about 1759 at same place as brother Peter; and

- Daniel Harrold (1764-1814) was born about 1764 at same place as brother Peter.

The homestead at Bethel Township, Berks County, PA was located northwest of Reading, PA, county seat of Berks County, just south of the Blue Mountains adjacent to I-78 between Harrisburg and Allentown. Bethel Township measures approximately 8 miles by 5 miles and contains 27,000 acres of land. It is bounded on the north by the Blue Mountains which separates it from Schuylkill County and to the east and south by the Little Swatara Creek, which divides it from upper and lower Tulpehoken Township. The south and west sides of Bethel Township are enclosed by Lebanon County.

By the mid-1700s Bethel Township was on the boundary between the well settled and sparsely settled parts of that County. Indian raids during the French-Indian War (1754-1763) were not uncommon, and locals were left to fend for themselves early on, although later the Provincial Assembly appropriated funds [32] See 18 Pa. Arch. 3d 21, 126, where Christopher was taxed on 50 acres, two horses and two cattle, and 1767 records at 3 Pa. Arch. 18, 49. Also, in Origins of the Family (Harrold) (an unpublished manuscript by Joseph Kellogg found at the Indiana County, Pennsylvania Library, Greensburg, Pennsylvania), it is said, * * * While in Reading [Pa.] on December, 1916, I searched the manuscript tax rolls of Berks County. On these rolls Christopher Harrold appears -- under different spellings, as Christopher, Christophel, Christoph, Christr, Stophel, and Herold, Herrold, Heroldt, Harolt, Herholt -- in the years 1753, 1754, records for 1755-1758 are missing -- 1759, 1769 (twice), 1761-1763, (Bethel for 1764 missing), 1765-1770 (in March and again in May), 1771 (in December). From then on he does not appear in the County.

the account of the following:

> November 23, 1779, trip over to Philip Davis after money; December 10, 1779, rode to Joseph Bellers, Capt., to settle dispute betwixt Harhold and George Painter; December 18, 1779, rode to courthouse for to settle dispute - two days lost to give evidence to settle dispute with Painter; 1780, work in harvest time; 1781, reaping and hauling grain; November 19, 1781, at Hannastown about a dispute in land betwixt Josh Arches and Harhold; 1782, two days ride to Capt. Samson to see about a dispute in land on Turtle [Tulpehoken] Creek; 1783, various items of work in harvest time, one days work on log fires, reaping, hauling hay, etc.; 1784, two days carrying the chain to survey the land on Turtle [Tulpehoken] Creek; 1785, three days riding over about Connemack (Conemaugh) to hunt cattle (These claims were for £43 15 shillings and only £12 9 shillings was approved).

The appraisal disclosed numerous items of personal property, household goods and utensils, clothing, razor, hand tools, two lamps, tack, barrels, weaving equipment, wagon, plows, wheel barrow, six horses, 34 cattle, 12 oxen, 17 pigs, ten sheep, and seven geese having an appraised value of £174.16.

GOOD PURPOSE

BALTZER MEYER HISTORICAL SOCIETY

WESTMORELAND COUNTY, PA.

HEMPFIELD TOWNSHIP

AS FALL APPROACHES:

It is Fall again and time to come inside for some great fellowship and refreshments. Our Sunday meetings are scheduled through the end of the year and the programs are very interesting. You will find them listed on another page of this Newsletter.

Also scheduled is the 3rd Annual Antiques Appraisal Day with Jeff Rause. Last year was a great success and we are looking forward to year being better. Bring your collectibles and family heirlooms and find out their history and value.

We are in the process of evaluating our meeting format to see if we can improve it. If you haven't already filled one out, please do so and give us your thoughts and suggestions. The Board of Directors is anxious to make changes where the membership thinks it would be appropriate.

By October or November we should have a new kitchen installed in Harrold Hall. That will be a great improvement and the ladies who work in the kitchen, I am sure, are looking forward to the new work space.

There is also a new sidewalk in the works. We hope to have that complete before the snow flies.

Please join us for the upcoming Fall season and Holidays.

President Peggy Anthony

RESULTS OF QUESTIONNAIRE

At the August Sunday Meeting, a Questionnaire was passed out. The Board of Directors wanted the input of the membership concerning those Sunday meetings.

The results of that Questionnaire are as follows:

Would you like to have more or less business of the Society discussed at the Sunday meeting?

Answer: Nobody wanted business at every meeting. The majority wanted business at some of the meetings and only one person wanted no business.

In the past we have had a variety of speakers and topics, some historically/genealogically based. Would you like to see that format continue?

Answer: One person said every meeting; several said some meetings and one said no meetings. The written comments seemed to tend toward a variety and that the variety we have had in the past has been good.

There was a question concerning changing the day of the week and the time. The majority did not want to change it from the current format. There was a small amount of interest in having the meetings on a weekday evening.

If you would like to make any comments or suggestions, please contact the President, Peggy Anthony.

BUILDING COMMITTEE REPORT

HARROLD #8 SCHOOLHOUSE

We have completed installation of the sewerage system. This work was accomplished through a 15,000K grant from the Pennsylvania Department of Community Development and the efforts of Tom Tangretti. Work is proceeding on the construction of the bathroom facility for the historical schoolhouse. 84 Lumber Company has awarded our request for materials in the amount of $2,268.32. The Hempfield Democratic Club has given us $200.00 to go toward the bathrooms. We are seeking support from local merchants to complete the job.

The Baltzer Meyer Historical Society has received a $1000.00 grant from the Community Foundation of Westmoreland County supporting the building and installation of shutters for the windows of the schoolhouse building--estimated total cost is $3000. We have used this $1000 grant to install shutters on three windows on the most vulnerable side of the building.

The Baltzer Meyer Historical Society is working in conjunction with the Hempfield Area School District in restoring our historical Harold #8 schoolhouse. David Valerio is supervising the work. We hope to soon complete the project and have it student-ready. Don Baker has spent untold hours in planning and coordinating.

BUILDING COMMITTEE FOR THE CENTER

The Paul Miller Ruff Genealogical Library and Harrold Hall 15K grant from the Pennsylvania Department of Community and Economic Development to update its facilities. A modern kitchen is being installed. Contracts have been negotiated for construction of a new ramp and entranceway, for completion of the heating system, and for the installation of a drop ceiling. Work is scheduled to begin immediately on all of these projects.

We invite you to visit and enjoy the improvements on "Open House Day" Saturday September 24th.

Allen Harrold's day.

CHURUBUSCO, Ind., Aug. 31.—Miss Myrtle Mae Parks and Allen Harrold were quietly [illegible]arried at Hillsdale, Mich., and th[illegible]t to keep the matter a secret, which they succeeded in doing for more than two weeks. When confronted with the facts they meekly "fessed up" and said that on August 14 the Rev. T. J. Tinker, of the above named place, had pronounced the necessary words which made them husband and wife. Miss Parks is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Parks. She is a very estimable young lady and one of the "hello" girls on the Churubusco exchange. Mr. Harrold is a son of Moses Harrold, of Avilla, a worthy young man who has been following the barber trade for several years. He spent three years of service in the standing army. They will probably reside in Churubusco.

Lucy,

My apologies, I was getting ready for my son's open house. After that I moved on to getting family research done for another line, for a reunion. I was also trying to get a bunch of sites set up on find a grave, so they could see the family tree. At the reunion we started talking about another lineage I hadn't tapped into, so I was devoting spare time to that. Unfortunately, your email was buried, I am so sorry.

My lineage is:	I think yours line up like this
Hans
Hans Bar	#1 Conrad Heinrich Bar –
Rudolph Bair and Catherina Wingert my immigrant 1743 b. May 17, 1722 d. Mar. 1788	#2 John Michael 1736 –
Rudolph Bair b. ? d. Oct. 31, 1819	3 Jacob Barr Bair 1758 - 1840 Is the Jacob H. Bair house his? http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/File:Jacob_H._Bair_House_(Canton,_OH).JPG North of Canton at 7225 N. Market Ave.
Christopher Bair b. Feb. 20, 1788 d. Oct. 6, 1868	Rebecca Bare Bair Harrold May 23, 1793
Simon Bair . Feb. 28, 1815 d. aft. 1900
Christopher Bair b. Oct. 26, 1848 d. Nov. 8, 1928
Minnie Bair b. Dec. 3, 1889 d. Oct. 14, 1970

Check w/ mine

I know some lineages have Rudolph. the son of Hans, but I personally don't have any documentation on that. I am unclear as to the Brothers of the first Rudolph. Where does your Conrad fit in? I ran across Jacob in the Stark County Land Records, if I am remembering correctly, he bought some land from Rudolph. I love their site, they have the originals scanned to be downloaded on line. I also saw that your family continued on to Columbiana County, Fairfield. I ran across them in the census when I was hunting down my line.

I live in Michigan. I have made it to the Fort Wayne Library once and only for a few hours, so I had specific books I was looking for and didn't do any browsing. I wish there was something like that closer to me. I do most of my hunting on line. It is amazing how much new stuff shows up.

I am getting ready for my Daughter's birthday and then on to homecoming, sorry this isn't in depth, but if I don't send this now, it maybe a while and you will think I forgot you again.

Cindy

Hi,
I did find all the info on Conrad Bair in my notes and other files.

I did copy almost a whole book on the family and it all looks good!

Where are you from? I live in Indiana.

As I find more , or if you want some things mailed to you let me know .

Bye for now, Lucy

Hi cousin!

It was great to hear from you. I would love to exchange information. I see my posting, for which Jacob Bair was your ancestor, was incorrect. Your Jacob was 1758-1840, so who was his father? and ancestral line?

The Christopher Bair, that I posted the obituary for, was my great-grandfather. So our line is:

Rudolph Bair and Catherina Wingert >
Rudolph Bair and Barbara Yerian >
Christopher Bair and Barbara Simon (Simons) >
Simon Bair and Elizabeth Croco >
Christopher Bair and Mary "Mollie" Paff >
Minnie May Bair and Bert Clark Robinson >
Donald Clark Robinson and Ariel Estella Scholl > Me

In your searching did you run across who Rudolph Bair's father was. I see that some people have him listed as Hans. I have been looking for some kind of documentation, but am coming up empty. On one of the forums a letter was mention for a brother of Rudolph's, or one of his sons that listed the ancestors. I posted a request for a copy of the letter, but did not receive a response.

I am looking forward to hearing from you.

Cindy

Valley of the Upper Maumee River:
with historical account of Allen County, and the city of Fort Wayne, Indiana:
the story of it's progress from savagery to civilization
by Col. Robert S. Robertson published 1889 by Brant & Fuller Madison, Wisconsin
pgs. 338 - 339

Simon Bair, a pioneer of Allen County, is a native of Ohio, born February 28, 1815. His father, Christopher Bair, a native of Westmoreland County, Penn., married Barbara Simons, who was born in Washington County, Penn. After her death he came to Indiana and settled in Cedar Creek township, where he remained the rest of his life. Simon Bair at the age of twenty-two years left his native place and removed to Holmes County, where on July 3, 1843, he was united in marriage with Elizabeth Croco, by whom he had nine children, four of whom are now living: Sarah, Adam, Christopher, and John. She was born February 22, 1820, and departed this life March 30, 1880: she was a consistent member of the Lutheran church, of which he is also a member. He never had more than a pioneer schooling when there was no work to be done on the farm. When he came to Allen County, September 23, 1845, he had no money, and moving into his little log cabin, his household furniture consisting of one bed, one chest, and two chairs, he made some stools, and by boring holes in the logs of the walls, he put in some small poles around which he wound cord for his other bed. He remained here on first coming two years, but the country being so sickly at the time he was advised by doctors to return to Ohio. He remained there about nineteen years and then removed to Missouri for two years, returning afterward to his home in Allen County. His possessions are all the fruit of his toil, and he has succeeded notably well. He now owns 166 acres of fine farming land in this township, with good buildings. He has always supported the whig and republican parties, casting his first presidential vote for William H. Harrison.

COMMENTS BY NED BAIR MINER

This genealogy is the result of many hours of research by many individuals who have tried to record the family of Jacob Bair Sr. I am indebted to Hubert E. Bair for the detail in his Jacob Bair Sr. Genealogy. From his comments which follow, one is assured of the depth of his search for information. It was my pleasure to find that Hubert and I are fourth cousins. I also found that the genealogy that Hubert had completed had very little information on John Bair, the youngest son of Jacob Bair Sr. Here I could help, for in 1988 I had gathered information on the descendants of John Bair (1796 - 1886). John had two wives: Elizabeth Callahan and Sarah Plattner. Elizabeth was my great, great grandmother. She died sometime after the birth of daughter Anna on February 3, 1830. My great, great grandfather John then married Sarah Plattner on September 30, 1830. John had 6 children with Elizabeth and 12 children with Sarah.

Hubert Bair let me make copies of his Jacob Bair Sr. Genealogy. Thus, my starting point was Hubert Bair's genealogy and my Bair genealogy (primarily of John Bair). As I continued my search, I was fortunate to have access to a Worschler, Warstler, Werstler, Wearstler Genealogy by Edwin L. Wiley, 1992. Later, I found that two (2) Bishop boys married two (2) Bair girls. Again, I was fortunate to have access to a Bishop Genealogy 1764 - 1983 by Rev. Kermit Jay Bishop... The highpoint of my entering all of this family information came when I discovered that the person who broke me into my first job in 1942, Willis E. Bishop, was actually related to me, being my fourth cousin. After 56 plus years, it was my privilege to visit Willis and his wife in April 1999.

I end these comments with a sad comment that Hubert E. Bair died September 26, 1999. On a positive note, I hope that this Jacob Bair Sr. genealogy will be helpful to all who use it in the years to come.

The Forebearers

Relatives and Descendants of

Jacob H. Bair

In compiling the records that appear in this History, it was vital that we use all the sources that were available. We utilized information assembled by Chas. W. Bair as well as Corwin and Elmer Miller; also

York County, PA legal records
York County Historical records
Adams County, PA legal records
Baptismal Records of Evangelical Lutheran Church of Littlestown, PA.
Lutheran Seminary in Gettysburg, PA.
State Land records of Harrisburg, PA.
Deed transfers and marriage records of Stark County, Canton, OH.
General Services Administration Army Records
Warstler Cemetery records of Stark County
St. Jacobs Cemetery records of Stark County

Volume No. 1 The Stark County Story by E. T. Heald
Stark County Historical Society
Stark County Library
Danner's "Old Landmarks" of Stark County
Mormon Church Genealogical records, Salt Lake City, Utah
Franklin County Records, Pasco, WA
Numerous family records

We were fortunate in uncovering records and baptismal records that were not available to other compilers, such as German records translated to English. Despite all our concentrated efforts, we were sometimes unable to substantiate certain dates and places, and had to settle for hearsay or just let them go unanswered. We owe a big debt of gratitude to all the wonderful people we talked to that gave us priceless information that can not be found in books. Invariably the oldest members of the family were the sweet old ladies and we marveled at the keenness of their minds as they provided information that kept us on the right track. (History of Bair Family by Hubert E. Bair, pg 1)

1758 JACOB BAIR 1840

Our search for the ancestors of Jacob H. Bair led us to the town of York in York County, PA., where we found the deed indicating that Jacob Bair had purchased 211 Acres in Germany Twp. from Christian and Maria Riff on Aug. 1, 1787

It was rumored that the family had come into Pennsylvania from Maryland, but upon inquiry it was found that the Courthouse in Fredricktown had burned and all their records were destroyed. Likewise, a search of Church marriage and Baptismal records failed to have any of the family listed.

Jacob Bair Sr. had three boys and four girls and we were fortunate in finding the Birth and Baptismal records of four of them in the St Johns Lutheran Church in Littlestown, PA. which was founded in 1763..

It has been assumed that the other three were born in Maryland. previous to their coming to Pennsylvania in 1787. Burial records reveal that Sarah was born in 1785, but no birth records of Barbara and Abraham, father of Jacob H. Bair, have so far been found.

Although the farm was listed as being in Germany Twp., York County, there was no indication where it was situated in the Twp. It was vital to pinpoint the location as that would indicate what Church it was close to and possibly reveal Baptismal records.

It was necessary to journey to the Land Office in Harrisburg where the land maps showed the shape of the property and the adjoining property owners. By adding the adjoining properties, it was possible to construct a map of the area that showed a road from Black Gap to Baltimore. With this information it was possible to find the location of the farm on the engineer's maps in Gettysburg, PA., being about one mile N.W. of Littlestown and 10 miles S.E. of Gettysburg. Incidentally, York County was divided in 1800 and Adams County was formed with Gettysburg being the County seat. With the position of the farm established, the closest and oldest Church contained the records of the baptismal and birth dates.

Deed transfer of Germany Twp., Adams County, reveals that Jacob and Barbara Bair sold their farm to John Weikert and Hannah Par on April 18, 1805. Thus the purchase of the land was recorded in York, PA and the sale of the land is recorded in Gettysburg, PA. The description of the farm as recorded states:

> Beginning at a stone where a marked white oak tree formerly stood, and in line with George Freise's lands, thence therewith south fifty-five degrees and three quarters east, one hundred perches to a post, thence by Conrad Dotterer's land, north sixty-six degrees and half west, three quarter east, nineteen perches and five tenths to a hickory grub, > thence by land late of Adam Winterode, now of Michael Ober, north sixty-six degrees and a half west, forty-four perches and five tenths to a white oak, thence by land N.W of Christian Dapper, north twenty-eight degrees west, sixty-four perches to a post, nort fifty-five degrees west, one hundred and fifty perches and three quarters to a post, thence by other land of Jacob Parr, south one hundred and sixty perches and three quarters to the beginning. Containing one hundred and thirty-even acres and half and six perches, and the usual allowance of six percent, be the same more or less, with all the buildings-improvements and appurtenances to the same belonging or being within the bounds of limits thereof.

The tract of land contained 211 acres when purchased and only 137 acres when sold, so evidently 74 acres were disposed of prior to the final disposal in 1805.

The State of Ohio was formed in 1803, and two years later, in 1805 Jacob Bair, and his wife Barbara and children came to Columbiana County. Stark and Carroll were then part of Columbiana County. Stark County was formed from this territory in 1809.

Records of Columbiana County, Lisbon, OH., show that Rudolph and Barbara Bair acquired land, by patent, from President Thomas Jefferson on June 22, 1804 and sold it to Jacob and Barbara Bair on April 18, 1806 for the sum of $ 914.54; consisting of 114 and 31/100 acres. This land laid in the S.E. corner of Section 7 - Twp.8 - Range 1 which is Fairfield Twp. several miles West of Columbiana, OH. Volume II - Page 748 Lisbon, OH shows that this same land was transferred from Jacob Bair, of Stark County, to David Harrold, husband of Rebecca Bair, of Columbiana County on June 27, 1821 for the sum of $ 1,000.00.

It was interesting to note that Jacob Bair and all seven of his children were engaged in farming. His three sons owned farms and his four daughters married men who were also farmers.

Also Christian Bair and her husband, Mathias Yairan, settled in Columbiana County. Volume I, page 70 indicates that Mathias purchased 154 42/100 acres from Rudolph and Barbara Bair on April 19, 1806.

Barbara Bair and her husband, Christian Warstler, lived in Stark Co, Plain Twp, OH.. She passed away in 1804 shortly after the birth of their son, Daniel, and is reported to be the third person buried in the Warstler Cemetery of Middlebranch Road.

Sarah Bair and her husband, John Rupert, (Volume N - Page 91) purchased 162 acres on May 5, 1819 in Nimishillen Twp., Stark Co, from Adam Ruperd who had acquired it from Patent in 1809. This land is just East of Harrisburg, OH.

As previously noted, Stark County was formed in 1809 and Volume Q, page 469 reveals that

Descendants of Jacob Sr. Bair

Generation No. 1

1. JACOB SR.^{2} BAIR (ABRAHAM^{1})[1] was born April 23, 1758 in Hagerstown, Washington Co, MD[2], and died November 27, 1840[3]. He married BARBARA ?. She was born Abt. 1755, and died Abt. 1821.

Notes for JACOB SR. BAIR:
It is assumed that the first three of Jacob's children were born in Maryland previous to their coming to Pennsylvania in 1787 (History of Bair Family by Hubert Bair)

Farn in PA was located in Adams County (Germany Tew, York Co - Note: York Co divided in 1800 & Adams Co formed with Gettysburg being the County seat). Deed transfer reveals that Jacob & Barbara Bair sold their farm to John Weikert and Hannah Par on April 18, 1805 (History of Bair Family, pg 2 & 3, by Hubert Bair)

Jacob Bair Sr arrived in Ohio in 1805. He had the first Ohio Deed issued in Range 1, Tp 8, Sec 7 by Rudolph Bair on 20 Jan 1806. (Records of Warstler Church and Probate Records, Stark Co, OH) These lands were located in Fairfield Tew. several miles west of Columbiana, OH The records of Stark Co. show a Patent issued by James Madison, Pres. to Jacob Bair of Columbiana Co. covering southeast quarter of lot or section number 3 Plain Twp. dated May 23, 1810 (Chas. W. Bair Genealogy, pg 11, Chapter VII)

Stark County formed from Columbiana County in 1809.

Assumed Jacob passed away at home of son, John, as settlement of estate allowed a bill for burial (History of Bair Family by Hubert E. Bair, pg 6).

She was born abt 1784 in PA and died September 28, 1876 in Ohio. To this marriage one child was born:
  Margaret Warstler, b: abt 1805 in OH; died September 25, 1877
  (Edwin L. Wiley, Descendants of Heinrich Worschler, Warstler, Werstler, Wearstler, 1992)

From Bair Genealogy by Hubert E. Bair, he states that Christian later married a Mrs. Drake. (could this be Dague?)

Came from Adams Co, PA with his father, Henry Warstler, and his brothers, George and Jacob, and stopped in Colombiana County, OH in 1803. In 1807 he moved with his family to Plain Twp, Stark Co, OH and farmed there (History of Bair Family by Hubert E. Bair)

He married ELIZABETH HARTER March 31, 1812[8], daughter of GEORGE HARTER and ELIZABETH BOWMAN. She was born November 29, 1795, and died June 18, 1887 in Cairo, Lake Twp, Stark Co, OH.

Notes for ABRAHAM BAIR:
It is presumed that Abraham was the oldest of his brothers and sisters but impossible to learn the year of his birth. His remains were first interred in a cemetery lying near the old Whitehall Schoolhouse on Market St., Canton, Stark, OH. Later the bodies in that cemetery were moved to St. Jacobs Cemetery, Cairo, OH. (Per Lew Slusser's History of Stark Co., OH)

Reported to be buried in a small Cemetery along Bair Road just East of Whitehall School. Those buried in this Cemetery were later moved when the road was widened. Some were removed to Snyders (St. Jacobs) Cemetery and others to Center Cemetery closer to Hartville. No record of his reburial was found at either place. Maggie Wolf recalled the wagons hauling the caskets past her home and she stated that only those with tombstones were moved; So Abraham could be buried at any of the three places mentioned. (History of Bair Family by Hubert E. Bair, pg 15).

Military records show that Abraham Bair was drafted into the Ohio Militia on August 24, 1812 to serve for a period of six months. He served as a Corporal in the Company commanded by Captain James Downing and was honorably discharged on February 28, 1813 at Camp Council on account of illness contracted in the service. Other documents indicate that his widow applied for 160 acres of land that was granted under the Act of 1855. (History of Bair Family by Hubert E. Bair, pg 15).

In 1812 the Harters were found living in Green Twp (now part of Summit Co.). Abraham Bair and Elizabeth Bowman were the first couple married in that Twp. on March 31, 1812 by Justice of Peace Abraham DeHaven. The marriage vows were a bit unusual.

> "You BROMIS TO TAKE TE VOMAN YOU HOLT BY TE HANDT TO PE YOUR VIFE, ANS TAT YOU WILL SHTICK TO HER THROUGH HELL FIRE, AND DUNDER? DON I PRONOUNCE YOU MAN AND VOMAN, BY COT." VERS IS MINE TOLLER?
> (History of Bair Family by Hubert E. Bair, pg 14 & 15)

An account of Elizabeth Bair states that "In the first year of her marriage it was her custom to set aside the Breakfast dishes and go with her husband Abraham to roll logs and burn brush in clearing land. At noon she would set out a cold lunch using the unwashed breakfast dishes. After dinner they were again set aside and she would return to the new ground and work until dark. She prepared supper by the light of the fire and the same unwashed pewter dishes were used and after this meal the dish washing was done, not from the want of cleanliness, but of necessity". Jacob Sr. Bair (b. April 23, 1758, d. November 27, 1840)

Jacob Sr. Bair[1] was born April 23, 1758 in Hagerstown, Washington Co, MD[2], and died November 27, 1840[3].

Notes for Jacob Sr. Bair:
It is assumed that the first three of Jacob's children were born in Maryland previous to their coming to Pennsylvania in 1787 (History of Bair Family by Hubert Bair)

Farn in PA was located in Adams County (Germany Tew, York Co - Note: York Co divided in 1800 & Adams Co formed with Gettysburg being the County seat). Deed transfer reveals that Jacob & Barbara Bair sold their farm to John Weikert and Hannah Par on April 18, 1805 (History of Bair Family, pg 2 & 3, by Hubert Bair). In October 2001, Judy Bair Bank and her husband, Tom, along with my wife, Oreta, and myself, found the Jacob Bair Sr. farm just north of Littlestown, PA. See Notes under my name, Ned Bair Miner, for further details.

Jacob Bair Sr arrived in Ohio in 1805. He had the first Ohio Deed issued in Range 1, Tp 8, Sec 7 by Rudolph Bair on 20 Jan 1806. (Records of Warstler Church and Probate Records, Stark Co, OH) These lands were located in Fairfield Tew. several miles west of Columbiana, OH The records of Stark Co. show a Patent issued by James Madison, Pres. to Jacob Bair of Columbiana Co. covering southeast quarter of lot or section number 3 Plain Twp. dated May 23, 1810 (Chas. W. Bair Genealogy, pg 11, Chapter VII)

Stark County formed from Columbiana County in 1809.

Assumed Jacob passed away at home of son, John, as settlement of estate allowed a bill for burial (History of Bair Family by Hubert E. Bair, pg 6).

Bair Family - In 1709 six brothers, Henry, Jacob, John, Michael, Martin and Abraham (Jacob Bair's father) came to America. Due to religious persecution in their homeland and upon invitation from Queen Anne of England, they left their homeland in the Rhine Country and went to England and later to America. When so many Germans came to America; Governor Kieth and the English Crown became alarmed and made each immigrant, as they set foot on American soil, swear allegiance to the Crown. These records became the property of the State. In this way the Shiplists were preserved. (Byron 'Barney' Bair, 60 Bonney St., Steilacoom, WA)
